

On My vacation trips I relied on instant traffic & weather in several cities that I passed through. I pay for this service, so FCC don't listen to the NAB. The day that they start this instant service on free radio I'll listen to them.